

Social Media Suggested Wording

Keep a Spring in their step by avoiding these hazards OUT AND ABOUT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pesticides and herbicides While all the stuff products are generally safe for cats, they can present dangers if inhaled, ingested or swallowed. Cocoa mulch Like theobroma, cocoa-based garden soil dressing contains theobromine which poses a potentially fatal risk. Grass blades Cats who have a penchant for eating grass at the risk of getting the blades stuck in their nose and throat. This can cause breathing problems, vomiting and nasal discharge. Adders Adders are most likely to bite in spring when they've just come out of hibernation. Their venom is highly dangerous to cats. Wasps and bees Most wasps and bees sting are not emergencies, but veterinary help may be needed if your dog is stung in the mouth or neck, or is allergic. 	Spring hazards that could make your cat unwell 🐱 From the hazards to avoid, to what to do in an emergency, this infographic from our out-of-hours partner, Vets Now will help you keep your cat safe this spring. 🌸
Keep a Spring in their step by avoiding these hazards OUT AND ABOUT <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Pesticides and herbicides While all the stuff products are generally safe for dogs, they can present dangers if inhaled, ingested or swallowed. Cocoa mulch Like theobroma, cocoa-based garden soil dressing contains theobromine which poses a potentially fatal risk. Slug and snails Dogs can catch Leishmaniasis, a potentially fatal disease, by eating slug and snails which are carrying the larvae of the parasite. Adders Adders are most likely to bite in spring when they've just come out of hibernation. Their venom is highly dangerous to dogs. Wasps and bees Most wasps and bees sting are not emergencies, but veterinary help may be needed if your dog is stung in the mouth or neck, or is allergic. 	Spring hazards that could make your dog unwell 🐶 Ever wondered what could be dangerous for your dog during spring? This infographic from our out-of-hours partner, Vets Now will help you keep your dog safe this spring. 🌸